NOTIFICATION.

ESTABLISHMENTS.

Simla, the 9th April, 1924.

No. F.-351-23.—The following rules made by the Secretary of State for India in Council under section 97 (6) of the Government of India Act for the appointment to the Indian Civil Service, otherwise than by competitive examination, of persons domiciled in India, are published for general information. They supersede the rules published with the Home Department notification no. F.-175-Ests., dated the 8th August 1922.

INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE.

Rules for Appointment to the Indian Civil Service otherwise than by Competitive Examination of Persons domiciled in India.

In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sub-section (6) of section 97 of the Government of India Act, the Secretary of State in Council, with the concurrence of the majority of the votes at a meeting of the Council of India, has been pleased to make, in supersession of the rules of 21st April 1922, the following rules for the appointment to the Indian Civil Service, otherwise than by competitive examination, of persons domiciled in India.

INDIA OFFICE,

31st October 1923.

RULES.

1. Every candidate for appointment must, in addition to being domiciled in India, be either a British subject or a ruler or subject of a State in India in respect of whom the Governor-General in Council has made a declaration under section 96-A. of the Government of India Act.

If the candidate (being a British subject) or his father or mother was not born within His Majesty's Dominions or allegiance, the father must, at the time of the candidate's birth, have been a British subject or the subject of a State in India ; and if alive must be, or if dead must have continued to be until his death, a British subject or a subject of such State.

2. A candidate must have attained the age of 21 and must not have attained the age of 23 on the 1st day of August in the year in which the selection is made.

3. A candidate must be free from disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for the Indian Civil Service.

4. A candidate must satisfy the Governor-General in Council that his character is such as to qualify him for employment in the Indian Civil Service.

5. A candidate must hold a degree of a University incorporated by law in British India, or of the Mysore University, or the senior diploma of the Mayo College, Ajmer.

6. The Governor-General in Council, having regard to the needs of the Local Governments, shall call on the Local Governments to recommend such number of candidates as he may direct.

7. The recommendations called for under Rule 6 shall be made in the first instance from the list of candidates who sat at the annual competitive examination held in India for the Indian Civil Service in the year in which the selection is to be made, and secondly from the list of those who, having applied to sit for that examination, were not awarded a certificate of selection. If sufficient suitable candidates are not available from those sources the Local Government shall call for fresh applications.

8. The Governor-General in Council, after considering the recommendations received from the Local Governments, shall propose candidates for appointment.

9. In the event of a candidate being selected for appointment he will be required to proceed to England on probation for two years. The rules for his probation will be the same as those prescribed for candidates successful at the competitive examination.

10. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support for his application through persons of influence will disqualify him for appointment. Spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not themselves acquainted with the candidate's work at school or at the University, or otherwise, will be disregarded.
